

God's Reconciliation

Questions for Personal Reflection

Where are you in this journey? Running away? Living far away? Sensing your need? Turning around to come back? On your way home? In the arms of your Father? Watching from a distance? Busy getting on with it?

Why are you there?

Where would you like to be?

Thinking about the parable of the prodigal son:

Who are you in this story? The rebellious son? The older son? One of the servants in the household? A neighbour?

Why have you chosen that role?

What is God saying to you through this story?

What action do you need to take?
