

Film evening: Les Miserables

AIMS AND OUTCOMES

- This evening could be run in a church members home inviting, for example, neighbours, baptismal parents or regular occasional congregants etc
- To spend an evening together getting to know one another better and growing friendships.
- If appropriate, to encourage conversation around some of the key themes in the film.

RESOURCES

- A DVD of Les Miserables
- TV with DVD facility or Digital projector, laptop and speakers.
- Refreshments, snacks, maybe a meal and comfortable seating

SESSION PLAN

- Welcome everyone with a drink and snacks of some sort.
- Introduce the film and watch it. You may want to stop the film halfway through for a comfort break and to top up refreshments.

At the end of the evening serve more refreshments or share a meal together and encourage the group to chat about the film. Talk about the themes of justice, mercy, forgiveness etc. Encourage honesty and openness.
