

The Diocesan Registry

Jos Moule is the Registrar to the Diocese of Truro. He is a partner at law firm, Veale Wasbrough Vizards, and is based in the firm's Bristol office. Jos is also the Registrar to the Diocese of Gloucester, having held that position since 2012.

Jos is supported by a Registry Team which provides the full range of Diocesan Registry services. Jos and the Registry Team can offer advice and support to all those involved in the Church of England in the Diocese of Truro.

The Registry advises both the clergy and laity, and deals with various matters concerning the Diocese and the Church of England, including

- advising on marriage in the Diocese of Truro, including granting common marriage licences
- advising on matters concerning baptism, confirmation and burial
- providing advice on and dealing with the faculty process
- issuing documents to clergy and lay workers appointing them to positions within the Diocese
- advising church officers on matters concerning their office
- acting as Registrar to the Diocesan Synod and legal adviser to the Bishop of Truro
- maintaining Diocesan records, including the patronage register.
