Options matrix for contested heritage

			Options for change
			No action	No change	Interpretation/ explanation	Addition	Non- permanent alteration	Relocation within building	Relocation to storage	Relocation on loan	Relocation by disposal	Permanent alteration	Destruction
Po	For	Fresh engagement with Potential strengths	mission	communities for whom object has meaning and strengthening of relationships Engagement with new professional partners For the object	Existing physical context preserved Acknowledgement of different values represented by the object Development of different range of values for the object Potential weaknesses	For	Issues not addressed; Christian teachings on racism and enslavement ignored; fourth Mark of Mission not acted upon Perception that nothing has changed Resources required Questions of what goes in the space the object
	For the object	Impact on significance of the object and/or its wider context May not be practicable / physically possible More difficult to be viewed or studied Permanent loss of the object Pot	For mission	New opportunities for outreach / tentia		strengthening Potential opportunities		relationships with and between communities New installations to address under- representation of communities / histories For the object	Increased knowledge and understanding of the object and its values through research and consultation
Potential threats	To mission	Alienation of those seeking major change, perpetuating institutional racism within the Church Parish or cathedral is focus of protest Consultation fails to produce consensus and reveals / entrenches community conflict Poor implementation of option could exacerbate conflict Perception that issues have been hidden rather than directly addressed Accusations of 'erasing history' / iconoclasm
	To the	Object is focus of object	protest and/or vandalism  		-										-	