

BISHOP'S CHRISTMAS CARD COMPETITION

This year's theme was to reflect Luke 2: 8-10

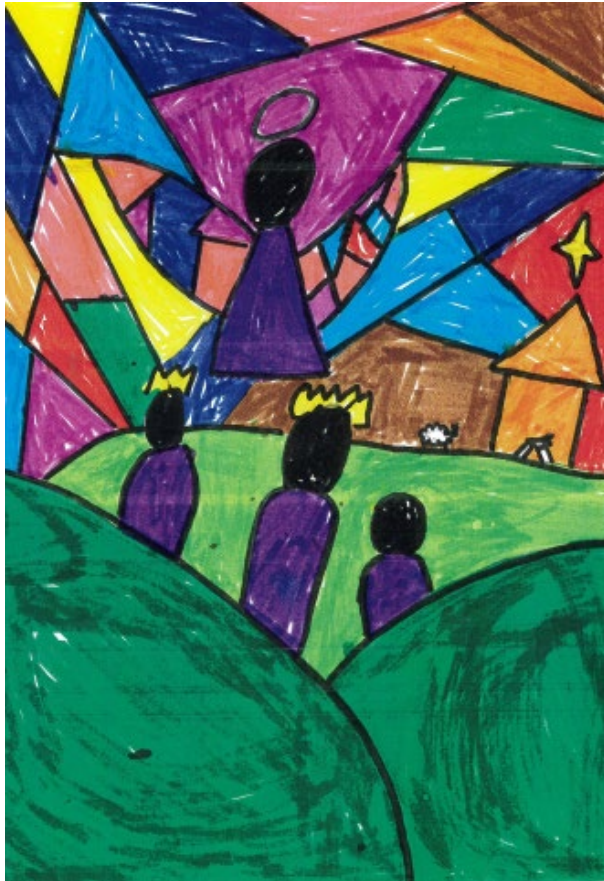

*And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified.
But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people"*

Congratulations to Evie (7) from Archbishop Benson CofE Primary who created this lovely sparkly card which was chosen by both Bishops and wives as their card for 2022

Congratulations to Jack (5) from St Issey CofE primary who painted this picture of some very smiley angels on a starry night. Bishop Philip chose this as his card for 2022

Bishop Hugh chose this colourful Mondrian style picture of an angel guiding shepherds and kings to the manger which was drawn and coloured by Oscar (Yr 4) of Duloe CofE primary school.

Diocesan Director of Education, Katie Fitzsimmons loved this joyful angel gloriously shining over the shepherds watching their flocks, drawn and coloured in by Cody (9) of St Mary's CofE primary in Penzance

Many thanks to all schools and children who took part in the competition this year.

Highly Commended were: Elsa (9) St Mary's Penzance, Elsie (9) Five Islands, Felicity (yr 3) Duloe school, Finley (Yr 5) St Francis, Jim (10) Archbishop Benson, Thea (7) St Issey and Thomas (10) St Michaels
