

20th April 2024
Truro Cathedral
Programme

10:00 Doors open. Plus outdoor entertainment from the Roseland Academy samba band

10:20 Welcome from Bishop Hugh Nelson

10:30 Drumming Workshop - Andrew Nicholson

Come and join in and have fun playing African drums with Andrew.

11:00 Speaker 1: Five Talents - Rachel Lindley/ Kris Coppock

"From Cornwall to Kenya: Effective church & community partnerships"

Come and hear how simple, church based community savings groups are transforming lives in eastern Africa - and how your church can be part of it!

We will share impact data and stories from entrepreneurs from Kenya, Burundi, South Sudan, Tanzania, Rwanda, Uganda and DR Congo, and share how the church is playing a key role in driving this impact - with a special example from St Agnes!

11:30 Ukrainian Harmony

This amazing ladies choral group of Ukrainian refugees will entertain us with their inspiring Ukrainian songs

12:00 Speaker 2: Christian Aid - David Hart

"Can aid agencies still bring genuine positive change for our world?"

Can the actions of churches and individuals make a difference for those experiencing inequality and injustice? Christian Aid believes we all have a role in bringing dignity, equality and justice, come and find out how.

12:30 Cornwall Youth Choir

The fantastic, award winning, Cornwall Youth Choir will entertain us with songs from around the world.

13:00 Speaker 3: Edukid - Chris Turner

"Next Generation Global Citizenship"

How we can personally connect with communities living in poverty, see the world through their eyes and together break the cycle of poverty, give a voice to the oppressed and explore sustainable long term solutions. Also looking at Edukid's work with Cornish schools.

13:30 Isaac Salaman

Local singer-songwriter and former missionary kid in Tanzania, 18 year old Isaac, will entertain us with some of his own music and some songs from his childhood in Tanzania

14:00 Speaker 4: Tearfund - David Hay

"Seed, time and Harvest"

How Tearfund, through the local church, is bringing life-changing community training which empowers people with skills and knowledge to become self-sufficient, so there's no going back to extreme poverty.

14:30 Drumming Workshop outdoors

15:30 Close