HERE'S HOW IT WORKS...

SUNDAY ENTRIES

Sunday entries (left hand page) highlight certain aspects of church life or a national or global campaign. These are followed by suggestions for daily prayer.

ANGLICAN COMMUNION

The Anglican Communion encompasses a rich array of countries (165!) and cultures. This Anglican Diary enables us to feel connected in prayer to the Archbishops, Bishops and our fellow Christians all over the globe.

PRINT TO GO

The Prayer Diary is a booklet to be used daily. You can print off a week to a sheet of A4 and carry it with you.

ANY SUGGESTIONS?

Specific prayer suggestions can be submitted by emailing info@truro.anglican.org

“ Da yw genev metya genes! It is really good to be with you here in the Diocese of Truro having just joined you from the far reaches of Yorkshire, and I have found it such a blessing to begin to meet you and get to know you. But my arrival here has also included some challenges. The process of moving home and starting a new role is both time-consuming and tiring, and when dealing with various companies and institutions to change my address or trying to take delivery of something when I don't know where I'll be, it has also been frustrating. At times such as this I find that, as I reach the end of my prayer diary entries, I struggle to know what to pray. It somehow feels a bit trite to pray for functional internet or for my recycling bins to be emptied on time. Danish philosopher Soren Kierkegaard once powerfully stated, “Prayer does not change God, but it changes the one who prays.” It is possible that he was overstating his case, but when I lack the energy or imagination to present a list of petitions to God, as I have done recently, I find the practice of praying an examen prayer to be life-giving. It is a simple technique that involves reviewing the day, giving thanks for all that has been, seeking insight into when I was most aware of the presence of God, expressing contrition for the times when He felt most distant, before then praying for guidance as to how to live so as to give Him ever more glory in the days ahead. 2Corinthians 3:18 states “And all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit.” (NRSVA) By praying backwards like this I find that my awareness of God's presence becomes ever more finely tuned and I find myself being transformed. Did it change God? I don't know. Did it change me? Absolutely. ”

SUNDAY 4 AUGUST CHAPLAINS

God of love, who cares for humanity, in the example of your Son, Jesus Christ, we give thanks for, and celebrate the ministry of chaplains. We rejoice that through this ministry, Your faithful people are able to respond to your calling and join in with Your mission in the world. We are encouraged by the experience of chaplains and how You are working in so many different places and contexts: farms, schools, prison cells, hospitals, nursing homes, workplaces, challenging places of conflict, universities, colleges, and in an endless list of places where people are. We pray for chaplains, that they may be strengthened by your love, and encouraged by others. We pray that the daily living out of their vocation by being present to and for others, in the example of Christ, brings light and transformation where they share the love of God. Amen

SUNDAY 1 SEPTEMBER CREATIONTIDE

Holy God,

Into one world you have set one community of creation. Plants and animals, earth, sky, and sun; women, men, boys and girls; young and old. We acknowledge our dependence on the fruits of the earth, the clear running water, the shelter of trees and the goodness of soil. We acknowledge our dependence on you, Lord, as author and creator. So help us, Lord of all, that the network of creation which so supports and helps us, may not be further broken and that we may be amongst those who repair the damage of the years.
