HERE'S HOW IT WORKS...

SUNDAY ENTRIES

Sunday entries (left hand page) highlight certain aspects of church life or a national or global campaign. These are followed by suggestions for daily prayer.

ANGLICAN COMMUNION

The Anglican Communion encompasses a rich array of countries (165!) and cultures. This Anglican Diary enables us to feel connected in prayer to the Archbishops, Bishops and our fellow Christians all over the globe.

PRINT TO GO

The Prayer Diary is a booklet to be used daily. You can print off a week to a sheet of A4 and carry it with you.

“ Don't be weary in prayer; keep at it; watch for God's answers, and remember to be thankful when they come. - Colossians 4:2

This August I headed back to Tanzania - the country that taught me how to truly pray, Festo's home, our children's heritage and where we served as CMS mission partners.

Before living and serving in Tanzania, I knew how to pray and was confident in praying - but it was only when I experienced life stripped of all my comforts and expectations that I learned prayer is simply living life in conversation with God who is my saviour and friend.

This year I was ordained priest, before I went on ordination retreat I felt a spiritual hunger to make the most of the opportunity and meet with God deeply.

I knew that in the same way as I might when seeking quality time with Festo or my friends, I needed to turn off all the distractions and lay down any other agendas swirling around my head. Not easy to do, but rewarded in God's presence where he spoke to me about remaining in the vine – keeping connected with him.

Prayer is the communication part of my relationship with God, it sustains my faith and as with any relationship in my life, when communication fails the relationship falters.

Archbishop William Temple is accredited with saying, 'When I pray, coincidences happen, when I don't, they don't'. That has been my experience too, I don't know how my priestly calling will unfold, but I do know it will be lived in conversation with my God.

Every Blessing, ”

SUNDAY 28 SEPTEMBER

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Compassionate God, who sent Jesus Christ to deliver us from all manner of injustices and inequalities, create in us new hearts and enlarged visions, to see the image of God in every person irrespective of background, race and ethnicity.

May we be generous in our love of others as we work towards ending racism and injustice; creating communities of human flourishing, through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

SUNDAY 5 OCTOBER HARVEST

Creator God, you give life and light to the world. We rejoice together in the wonder and the fullness of your creation. We give thanks for small seeds that flourish into great trees and bear fruit in abundance. We delight in the gifts of nature and the hope a good harvest can bring [...] Living God, you call upon us to sow peace, grow faith, and tend to one another in love. Plant in us a commitment to pursue that call. Strengthen our hope as we seek together the coming of your kingdom on earth.

Amen.

READER'S SERVICE (11TH OCT)

Gracious and faithful God, we give you thanks for the calling you place upon your people, and for the many gifts you pour out for the building up of your Church. In our annual service we rejoice in the ministry of Readers for their faithfulness in proclaiming your Word, leading your people in worship, and serving in love in the places you have set them. We thank you for those newly licensed this year - fill them with the joy of the Gospel, the courage of the Spirit, and the wisdom to walk closely with Christ in all they do. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who calls, equips, and sends us in the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

SUNDAY 19 OCTOBER HOSPITAL SUNDAY

Healing God, we lift our hearts in thankfulness for access to healthcare and all who work in hospitals and community settings. Thank you for the volunteers and unseen workers who provide essential support to patients and frontline workers. Anoint the eyes, ears, hands and hearts of doctors, nurses, and caregivers, that you may be visible through their words and actions. Enfold all who are suffering in body, mind, or spirit in your healing love and grant patience to those waiting for treatment or answers. Lead the despairing towards hope, the fearful towards trust, and draw closest to those who need your comfort and reassurance as they face uncertainty or are coming to the end of their earthly lives.

All these things we lift to you, through Jesus, our healer and redeemer.

SUNDAY 26 OCTOBER PRAYER FOR LIGHT IN THE DARKNESS

As the clocks change and the dark evenings draw in, help us Lord Jesus to change our habits and become light in the darkness. Where there is evil, shine such a bright light that it is exposed and extinguished.

Be the light that guides us to where you need us to be, so we can be shining lights in our homes and communities. When our light is dim help us to recharge as we spend quiet time with you.

In all we do and wherever we go, help us to remember even death could not put out your light.

Amen.

PCC TREASURERS AND FINANCE TEAM

Heavenly Father, we give thanks for the gifts and treasures you have bestowed upon us here on earth in the diocese and in the parishes.

Jesus taught us to store up treasures in heaven, so we pray for your guidance, Lord, to use our gifts wisely towards building your kingdom here on earth.

We pray for wisdom and discernment for our PCC treasurers and the diocese finance team as they prepare budgets for next year and that they are given strength and humility to do your will here on earth as it is in heaven.

We ask this in your name.

Amen.

SUNDAY 9 NOVEMBER REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

Almighty God, as we remember the men and women of Cornwall who gave their lives in war and conflict, we pray for those who continue to face danger for the sake of others today. We pray especially for those serving in the Armed Forces, and those who wait for their safe return. Keep our eyes fixed on your kingdom of righteousness and mercy, and grant to us the courage and wisdom we need to work for peace and justice, that it might come to rule over our own lives, the communities we serve and the whole world.

For the sake of Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace. Amen.

CARING FOR THE ELDERLY

Heavenly Father, as the days grow shorter and the light fades early, we thank You for being the Light that never dims. In this quiet season, when the world seems to slow, place it on our hearts to draw near to those who have walked many winters before us.

Lord, we lift up the elderly, who have given so much, who carry years of wisdom, faith, and grace. Use our visits, O God, as vessels of Your comfort and kindness. Every shared moment a reminder they are deeply loved by You and by us.

Thank You for the gift of community, for the sacred opportunity to care, and for Your promise that no one is ever truly alone.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

CHRISTMAS PREPARATIONS

Almighty Lord, as we enter this sacred season of Advent and Christmas, we come before You with hearts full of gratitude and anticipation. You are the giver of all good gifts, and the greatest gift of all is Your Son, Jesus Christ. We ask you for guidance, grace, and presence as we prepare to celebrate Jesus' birth, so we might be able fill our hearts, churches and homes with your love. We lift to you all those who we will engage with through services and community events. As we encounter them, may they encounter you, so they might recognise you, not only in this special time of year, but all year round. In Jesus name, Amen.

Prayer by Lydia Remick, Diocese of Truro's Lay Ministries Development Officer.

SUNDAY 21 DECEMBER CHRISTMAS PRAYER

Almighty Father, in this joyous season of hope, peace and fellowship we look forward to spending time with one another, sharing meals and opening presents. But let us remember we are celebrating something much more precious - your holy son, the lamb of God, the prince of peace, the one true saviour of all mankind.

And after all the food has been eaten, all the presents unwrapped and the decorations taken down, we ask you to help us remember your gift to us is everlasting eternal life through the light of the world - Jesus Christ.

Amen.

Prayer by Patrick Keates (Year 5, St Mary's Church of England School, Penzance)
